TSI Volunteers Compete in Thanksgiving Trot for Hunger to Support So Others Might Eat

Arlington, VA – November 29, 2011 – A team of thirty-eight TSI volunteers competed in the 10th Annual Thanksgiving Day Trot for Hunger on November 24, 2011 in Washington, D.C. The race supports the hungry and homeless by raising money to benefit So Others Might Eat. Eight of the TSI participants ranked in the top twenty for their age category at the event.

So Others Might Eat is one of TSI's charities of choice as part of their Feed to Lead Program. SOME's mission is to restore hope and dignity, one person at a time by feeding, clothing and training homeless people in Washington, D.C. TSI CEO Marta Wilson started the Feed to Lead Program which commits multi-year funding earmarks and time to fight hunger and promote literacy and STEM education. For more information about the program please visit: www.transformationsystems.com/community.html

About Transformation Systems, Inc.

TSI is a fast growth management systems engineering company of PhDs, possibility thinkers and business authors who help forward thinking military and civilian leaders within the Defense community achieve their extremely challenging goals in ways that are most efficient, effective and responsive. The TSI team has been recognized repeatedly for helping set historic records as part of the Defense community's counter-IED effort within the Joint MRAP Vehicle Program and by the Naval Sea Systems Command for facilitating successful technology transitions such as ERP.
