RESULTS

95.5% of workshop participants across twelve Navy organizations reported that they found LEAP valuable, they intended to experiment with new behaviors they learned, and they would recommend LEAP to colleagues.

"TSI provided rapid-response valuable products to energize the acquisition workforce, to promote productivity, innovation, and excellence, and to ensure workforce accountability."

"This TSI deliverable is the most professional piece of work I've been part of in my time in the Pentagon."
